I can't say that I'm sorry to hear that Microsoft has lost a little ground but as everybody knows Bill Gates pretty much stole the software from his once partner and as they say What goes around comes around. As far as I'm concerned Bill Gates has been allowed to have too much go on and thought that he wouldn't get caught at it. If only the penalty toward him could be greater I don't think too many people would shed a tear over his loss!
